

PRIVACY POLICY

EFFECTIVE DATE DECEMBER 1ST 2023

WELCOME TO PLAY FIVE

Your privacy matters to us (PLAY FIVE), from the personal data you've shared to the smiles you make. we are committed to protect your privacy and secure your data.

The privacy policy covers the use of the software application Play Five (Play Five system LLC) when you access the website, mobile application, links, and features offered by Play Five. It describes how we collect, use, and safeguard your data, This policy does not apply to any business or operations done by third-party companies that Play Five controls or owns. by accessing and signing up on our platform you acknowledge and confirm the policies in this privacy policy

INFORMATION

The personal data we(Play Five) collect to operate our platform is the basic information like end user (you) name ,email , age, Gender, password, photograph, likeness and pretty much any information you provide to Play Five in connection for us to operate our platform. therefore all information you provide to us must be true, complete, and accurate, you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

Financial info - The financial information the user provides, such as a debit/credit card or, bank account, is collected and processed by our third-party payment processors. when the end user(you) makes a purchase, the payment is handled by the third- party payment processor(Stripe), therefore Play Five does not hold, receive or keep any of your debit/credit card information, but will receive notifications and information of a transaction when the user makes a purchase, we partner with Stripe and PayPal.

Real-Time location - The beta version of Play Five does not collect any Real Time location information of the user (you). As our community grows, we strive to do our best to give the user a great experience like updating new features and designs which may include real-time location. this policy will be updated from time to time, please make sure to check for any updates.

Third-party access information - the beat version of Play-Five does not partner with anyone for them to access our data, thus the information provided by the user will not be shared, the policy may be changed as we grow our community, please be sure to check for any updates on the policy.

Advertisers- the beat version of Play-Five will not have any advertising partners, this may change as we keep growing, please make sure to check for any updates on the policy.

Deactivation of service - If the user wishes to deactivate or discontinue using the platform (Play Five), the user may do so by simply logging out and uninstalling the app, or by contacting Play Five customer support, we will do our best to get back to you in a short period.

Security - Your privacy matters to Play Five, as we strive to give you the best experience possible while we protect your data/information, we limit access and information to our employees and contractors who will be needing the required information you've provided to maintain and develop our platform. users also need to be informed that no security system guarantees the security of any possible threats or security breaches.

Changes - This privacy policy may be updated periodically, the user is advised to check for any updates or changes on this policy

Children Data - The data we collect from every user who signs up with Play Five is the basic information to operate our platform like Name, email, password, age gender. if you have been alerted or taken notice that your child has provided us with personal details without your knowledge, you may contact us via email and have the data and the account deleted. you may also uninstall and delete the application from the mobile device to prevent any usage of the platform.

CCPA - If you are a California resident, please refer to the CCPA law, if you need any assistance or information with your profile in regards to CCPA please contact us via email, we will be happy to help.

By using Play Five mobile application or web application you agree to our privacy policy and any changes done to it from time to time, you agree to our processing of your data/ information you have given when signing up to access Play Five, which helps us operate the platform to which we strive to give you the best experience.

Contact us - If you have any questions regarding the privacy of your data or this policy you may contact us via email - Support@playfive.io